

Family Meeting Planner

A simple structure for solving problems together instead of only talking when something goes wrong.

MEETING DATE

Start with something good

One appreciation, success, or funny moment from the week.

What needs attention?

Choose one or two issues—not the entire family history.

Ideas from everyone

What solutions could we test?

Our agreement for this week

Who will do what, and when will we check back?
